Re: OBJECTION to Motion of Debtors to estimate claims based on digital assets, Case No. 22-11068(JTD), Hearing Date: January 25, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. (EST)

Dear Judge Dorsey

I am an ftx customer and I write to formally object to the Debtor's request for an order to estimate the Claims of ftx customers based on the amount set forth in the Digital Assets Conversion Table.

My claim is 100% BTC (approximately 0.57 BTC). It is derived from my account balance in ftx (which is the same amount, again in BTC).

The main reason I object is clause 8.2.6 of ftx terms of service. Certainly other letters cover this reason much better than I can, hence, to respect your time, I will not expand further here.

An other reason is the following. In the motion of debtors, in B.21 and B.22 (pages 9 and 10) the reasoning involving the number of claims ("millions of claims") is wrong. After some overhead not depending on the number of claims, with each claim liquidated we have trivial added work but big (in average) added importance to a customer, and hence the big number of claims justifies the work required in the overhead.

Regards
Eleftherios Tsiokos
